About Cyprus & Ayia Napa

Cyprus lies in the Eastern Mediterranean at the crossroads between Europe, Africa and Asia and is an island of extreme natural beauty with a long and rich heritage. The climate is balmy and sunny and the coastline is scattered with attractive beaches and crystalline bays. The conference will take place in Ayia Napa, an area on the southeast coast of the island, with phenomenal weather, golden sandy beaches, and crystal-clear waters. Over the years, Ayia Napa has transformed from a fishing village into one of the top holiday destinations in the Mediterranean.

Conference Chairs

Panayiotis C. Andreou - Cyprus University of Technology
Tarik Driouchi - King's College London
Paul Guest - King's College London
Neophytos Lambertides - Cyprus University of Technology

Special Session

Durham University Business School is organizing and chairing a special session on "Emerging Trends in Lending Markets: Housing, Fintech, and the Real Economy." This session will showcase high-quality research exploring the evolving dynamics in lending markets and their effects on economic performance, regulation, and financial wellbeing. Authors who are interested in participating in this session should explicitly state their interest during the submission process.

Best Paper Awards

The following awards will be presented based on recommendations by the scientific committee and conference chairs: Conference Best Paper, Best Paper in Finance, Best Paper in Accounting, and Best Doctoral Paper. These are supported by the «XM Research Awards» scheme aiming to recognize outstanding scientific work presented during the conference.
